

BERT WILLIAMS

SUPERLATIVE WINNER

On May 24th, we celebrated Bert Williams for earning the Louise Kucel award for Diligence at the same lunch we would celebrate his last day. Bert will be missed at Townsned, but we are wishing him happiness and good things to come!

Townsnd is lucky to have someone who truly embodies the word dilligence. A person who is Dilligent does things right, pays attention to little details, and is motivated to get shit done. This award honors Louise Kucel who exhibited all these qualities.

Congratulations on this honor, and thank you for carrying on Louise's Legacy in hustle and heart and for the 10 years you gave us the best of you!!

“Bert - That guy has got hustle and heart. He's great at detail and will do the right thing when no one is watching. Reminds me a lot of Louise and her personal high expectations she gave herself. He's great with detail and willing to stay late to get shit done.” - Tricia Martin

LOUISE KUCEL DILIGENCE
AWARD

About This Superlative Award

Diligence is having or showing care and conscientiousness for one's work and duties. It is also defined as being careful & preserving in carrying out one's tasks. This award encompasses the work of Louise Kucel that we value and so deeply miss. We honor her and those who follow her footsteps in demonstrating hard work, care for quality of work, care for people, being dedicated partner, detailed oriented, resourceful, precise in their work, and Get Shit Done attitude.
